

The Shift Report

December 2022

Is your Chapter a Constituent Chapter of NSNA/CNSA? In order to participate in the CNSA House of Delegates at the Annual Convention, you must meet the following requirements:

1. You MUST have at least 10 NSNA/CNSA Members by February 15th.
2. You MUST complete your Constituency form.

The Official Application for NSNA Constituency Status must be completed and submitted online annually prior to the NSNA Annual Convention.

For more information or to get assistance, please contact Sara Shippy at sara@cnsa.org.

AIDS is the final stage of HIV infection. It can take years for a person infected with HIV to reach this stage. One in 5 of the more than one million people living with HIV in the United States is unaware of his or her infection.

To help promote early diagnosis of HIV, get tested! Early diagnosis of HIV may substantially reduce the risk of transmitting the virus. For more information about HIV and the AIDS virus and available resources, click on the link below.
